Nascot Wood Junior School

Dear Parents,

As some of you will have seen, the Sunday Times published its national state school league tables on Sunday.

I am delighted to tell you that Nascot Wood Junior School has been ranked in 15th position out of 20,832 primary schools in England. (Please see below for the Sunday Times list)

This is a testimony to the hard work and inspirational teaching of our staff, the commitment and support shown by the parent body, and the learning behaviours and attitudes of our exceptional children.

I hope that you will feel proud of this outstanding result. My aim is to be listed in the top ten in the near future.

Thank you for all your support which allows us to make the marginal gains necessary to improve year on year.

THE SUNDAY TIMES

Nascot Wood Junior School has been ranked 15th in the national state primary school league tables by Parent Power, The Sunday Times Schools Guide, published in The Sunday Times and online this Sunday, November 22.

The 28th edition of Parent Power identifies the 2,000 highest-achieving schools in the UK, ranked by their most recently published examination results. A fully searchable national database by school name, local authority, town and postcode, together with regional rankings are available to Times and Sunday Times subscribers at: thesundaytimes.co.uk/parentpower

As well as assessment of all academic results on a school-by-school basis, Parent Power enables parents to compare the performance of a given school with other schools in the same town, local authority or nationally. There are also live links to school websites and schools' most recent inspection reports.

Parent Power is widely acknowledged as the most authoritative survey of the country's best schools.
