

NASCOT WOOD JUNIOR SCHOOL CULTURE

'Education must, be not only a transmission of culture but also a provider of alternative views of the world and a strengthener of the will to explore them'

Jerome Bruner

What is the culture in the school that provides the foundation supporting our three intentions?

Culture of investment

- the wellbeing of all; pupils, staff, parents, community
- Trust
- Promotion of good mental and physical health
- Restorative approach to behaviour management
- Valuing of mistakes

A culturally rich environment

- The development of cultural capital
- Leadership opportunities for staff and children
- Investment and ownership in future education
- Enrichment activities/experiences
- Outward looking-learning from other settings/fields

Culture of respect, courtesy and kindness

- Building of relationships
- Cornerstone of every conversation, no matter how challenging
- Promoted and valued

Culture of Inclusion for all

- Shared responsibility
- Equity rather than equality
- Shared understanding of complexities/features of diversity
- High expectations for all

Culture of praise and high aspiration

- Growth mindset
- Catch them getting it right
- Academic rigour
- Bespoke educational and careers advice