Thought for the week...

'The heart is where peace begins, so fill it up with as much love as you can and let it spread outward until other people can see and feel it – be like the sun in the shadows' Cat Stevens from his book 'Peace Train'

Dear Parents,

This week has brought some unexpected challenges for us all, and I am proud of how the children have adapted, once again, to the changes that this has necessitated.

We were looking forward to welcoming Dean Russell, MP for Watford, to the school this week, but this visit has had to be postponed in the light of our recent covid cases. His visit will be rescheduled as soon as possible.

I would like to welcome Mr Tim Merrill, who joined the school on Thursday to teach Elm Class. Mr Merrill will be with us for the rest of the Autumn Term and I know that he will make a positive contribution to the school.

Please continue to inform us should anyone in your family have a positive covid test – this enables us to have a proactive approach to managing this in school.

Wishing you a restful weekend.

With best wishes,

Christina Singh

Headteacher

Stars of the week 8th October 2021

The following children have been nominated by their Class Teachers to be star of the week this week, for an aspect of learning, an achievement or positive behaviour. However, all the children deserve congratulations for a successful week.

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Siana	For mapping a really detailed and well thought out story line.
Willow	Hiteshree	For a fantastic re-telling of The Dragon Machine. The written detail and illustrations really bought the story to life.
Oak	Filip	For always trying hard and participating in all areas of the curriculum.
Juniper	Lorenzo	For settling in fantastically to Nascot Wood Junior School and working hard on developing his written English. Per essersi ambientato in modo fantastico alla Nascot Wood Junior School e aver lavorato duramente per sviluppare il suo inglese scritto.
Elm	Shayaan	For supporting his remote talk partner, including working effectively with the technology.
Beech	Orla	For fantastic participation and subtraction skills during Maths.
Rowan	Ben	For a fantastically written e-mail in our English lesson, you fully embodied Julian and used his mannerisms. Well done.
Poplar	Saanvi	For two reasons: for producing an excellent 'Year 6 Investigates' piece of work on percepts, and for demonstrating precise and controlled skills in pilates.

Announcement of House Captains 2021–2022

All applicants were asked to submit a short video explaining why they thought they would be a suitable candidate. These videos were shown to each class and the children voted for their preferred candidate.

This gives the children an introduction to the idea of taking a democratic vote.

Below are the results – many congratulations to the successful candidates.
