They went with songs to the battle, they were young.

Straight of limb, true of eyes, steady and aglow.

*They were staunch to the end against odds
uncounted,*

They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old.

Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning,

We will remember them.

Dear Parents,

Yesterday, we commemorated Remembrance day, joining with people from all over the world in remembering those men and women who gave their lives in the first and second world wars, and the conflicts since.

In addition, we remembered those who have served their communities during this pandemic; doctors and nurses, teachers and all those working in education, supermarket workers and all those who supply our food and the many others who are carrying out essential work.

As well as remembering the fallen, the children are taught to look first for peaceful solutions to problems that they have, so that this peace will affect others and spread across the world.

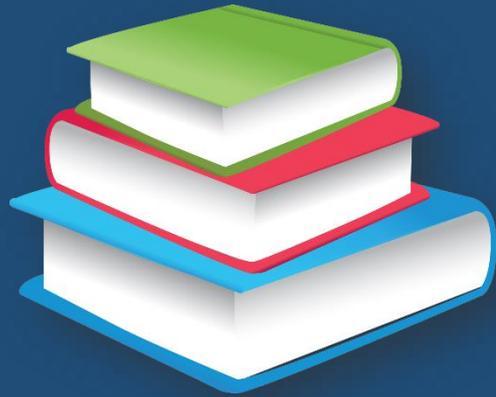

Wishing you a relaxing weekend.

With best wishes,

Christina Singh

Headteacher
