Thought for the week

Peace begins with a smile

Mother Theresa

On Monday 19th September, the day of Her Majesty the Queen's funeral, the nation will gather to reflect on the long and happy life of Britain's longest-serving monarch.

May she rest in peace.

Stars of the week Friday 16th September 2022

The following children have been nominated by their Class Teachers to be the star of the week this week for an aspect of learning, an achievement or positive behaviour. However, all the children deserve congratulations for a successful week.

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Rayan	For creating a fantastic city description. Your use of personification in particular is brilliant!
Willow	Hamzah	For being a model pupil, you are always engaged with your learning and try your hardest. Well done!
Oak	Oliver	For showing great determination and persistence during our maths lessons this week.
Juniper	Hiteshree	For creating some excellent descriptive sentences when describing a city in English.
Elm	Reyansh	For being so engaged and enthusiastic in all areas of our learning but particularly impressing me with his wonderful drawing of the Sutton Hoo helmet!
Beech	Jahliyah	For her engagement in our learning and for continuing to grow on her understanding by trying something out and improving it with help.
Rowan	Ayan	For a fantastic fitness session, where you demonstrated great listening and determination.
Poplar	Jamie	For coming into school extra early every day to conduct 'buddy reading' with a member of the lower school. His patience and encouragement has been a joy to witness.
