Thought for the week...

The third candle in Advent represents joy. It is called the Shepherd's Candle' and reminds us of the joy that the world experienced at the birth of Jesus.

The fourth and final candle, the 'Angel's Candle,' symbolizes peace. It reminds us of the message of the angels: 'Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men.'

Many thanks...

...to all the parents who donated gifts so generously for children on Starfish Ward, Watford General Hospital.

The card was received in recognition of your kind donations from the staff at Watford General Hospital.

Wishing you a Happy Christmas and a peaceful New Year.

With thanks and best wishes from all the staff at Nascot Wood Junior School

Pantomime at Watford Palace Theatre

We had a lovely time at the pantomime. Special thanks to all our helpers!

Stars of the week 9th December

The following children have been nominated by their Class Teachers to be the star of the week this week for an aspect of learning, an achievement or positive behaviour. However, all the children deserve congratulations for a successful week.

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Aras	For really pushing yourself to write an excellent set of instructions, and for being a fantastic member of Holly Class.
Willow	Milan	For showing great focus and enthusiasm in his maths work this week. Well done, Milan. You inspired your classmates to look even further to find the hidden angles.
Oak	Perrin	For showing a determined and positive attitude across all areas of the curriculum.
Juniper	Kamden	For demonstrating fantastic mathematical reasoning skills when solving problems involving time this week.
Elm	Milind	For always being an enthusiastic, inquisitive and dedicated learner across the curriculum. I have particularly admired Milind's willingness to support his friends with their learning also, especially in maths. He is a joy to have in Elm class!
Beech	Danish	For writing a wonderful Frantic Christmas Eve story, using cohesive devices to bring it together with such control.
Rowan	Hollie	For developing confidence in herself to work independently and continuing to show a positive growth mindset towards all the work that you do.
Poplar	Srinjoyee	For being industrious in her approach to learning and for having the most infectious smile. Srinjoyee is a pleasure to teach.

Stars of the week 16th December

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Dakshaya	For always working to the absolute best of your ability, and for being so helpful around the classroom.
Willow	Arsila	For working hard in your reading and handwriting. I have been proud to witness your increased confidence when reading aloud in class and was pleased to be able to give you your pen license.
Oak	Aamir	For showing dedication to all tasks and completing them to a high standard.
Juniper	Shaurya	For working hard during our trombone lessons this term and demonstrating great accuracy when reaching the notes.
Elm	Sanvy	For being a musical superstar this week, performing with both the choir AND the orchestra at our carol service. You put such wonderful effort into both of your performances also. Well done!
Beech	Tyler	For his constant effort, insightful input to our learning and creative talent which you've all seen at the carol service and will see next week in the talent show.
	Jahliyah	For singing so beautifully at the carol service and making sure that everyone came in at the right time-you were a star!
Rowan	Anika	For supporting the children in year 3, so ably and conscientiously on our walk to the Palace Theatre.
Poplar	Lauren	For her precise scone-making skills in design and technology this week. Lauren's savoury scones looked very accurate in shape and size; they were worthy of a Paul Hollywood handshake!
