

Information update for Parents

- Thought for the week
- Gallery
- Stars of the week

Friday 27th January 2023

Thought for the week...

'No matter how long the winter, spring is sure to follow'

Gallery

Three dimensional model of a meercat and owl by Nadia (year 6 Poplar).

Urban scene by Jahliyah (year 5 Beech)

Stars of the week 20th January 2023

The following children have been nominated by their Class Teachers to be the star of the week this week for an aspect of learning, an achievement or positive behaviour. However, all the children deserve congratulations for a successful week.

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Arabella	For being a fantastic reading role model. Your reading is clear, well paced and superbly expressive. It is an absolute pleasure to listen to you.
Willow	Oliver	For showing great resilience and maturity in dealing with an injury. You didn't let it ruin your day and continued being fully engaged in lessons as usual. Well done, Oliver.
Oak	Kristina	For settling in really well to Juniper Class and joining in during class discussions.
Juniper	Anya	For being a consistently polite, helpful and kind member of the class. You are a joy to teach!
Elm	Hasan	For settling into our class absolutely seamlessly. You have been an enthusiastic and conscientious worker in each lesson and you should be very proud of yourself, as we know moving school isn't always easy. Well done!
Beech		For asking interesting and challenging questions in science.
Rowan	Rowan class	For being fantastic members of the 'Young Voices' choir. You sung and danced the night away. I was incredibly proud of you the entire day and it was a joy to watch. I hope you all enjoyed it as much as I did.
Poplar	The whole of Poplar class	For being such superstar singers in last night's 'Young Voices' concert. Poplar sang with real gusto and energy; it made me feel extremely proud to be their class teacher.

Stars of the week 27th January 2023

The following children have been nominated by their Class Teachers to be the star of the week this week for an aspect of learning, an achievement or positive behaviour. However, all the children deserve congratulations for a successful week.

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Saathvik	For making the fantastic decision to do your absolute best and for sticking to it. You have really pushed yourself in the last few weeks and it is really making a difference. Well done!
Willow	Vedhaa	For consistently delivering beautifully presented work and fantastic neat handwriting. Well done, Vedhaa. Your books are a pleasure to mark.
Oak	Yaseen	For his excellent uses of expanded noun phrases and prepositional phrase when writing descriptive sentences.
Juniper	Kiera	For continuing to work hard on her spellings and making consistent improvement in our weekly spelling test.
Elm	Ayooluwa	For showing such enthusiasm and engagement on our trip to St Albans Cathedral this week. It was so lovely to see you sharing your knowledge with the trip leader and your classmates. Well done!
Beech	Szymon	For showing his keen interest in everything we do in lesson and wanting to be a better learner, everyday.
Rowan	Alice	For showing an increased confidence in lessons and contributing to class discussions in a thoughtful and considered manner.
Poplar	Abigail	For dancing with energy, enthusiasm, accuracy and synchronicity in this week's dance lesson. Abigail is an outstanding role model and her routine was a joy to watch.