

UPDATE FOR PARENTS

Friday 24th
November
2023

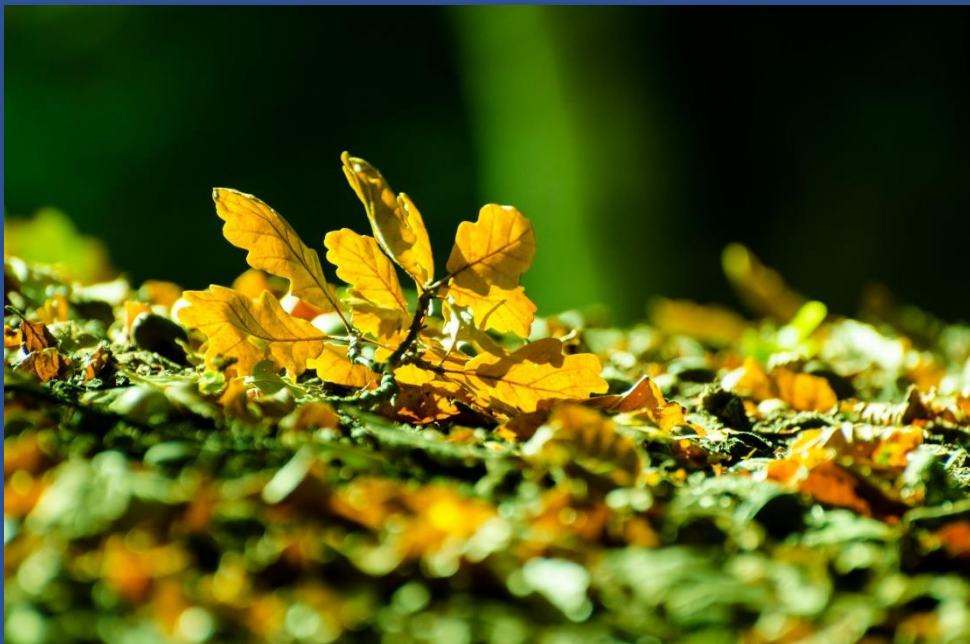

- Thought for the week
- Art work of the week
- Stars of the week

Thought for the week

Autumn carries more gold in its pocket than all the other seasons

Jim Bishop – American Author and Journalist

Art work of the week

Tanvi, year 6 Poplar

Nora, year 4 Oak

Stars of the week

Friday 24th November

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Adit	Adit you have such a mature attitude towards your learning and you are always keen to develop and challenge yourself in all areas of the curriculum. You are a brilliant role model to your peers and you should be proud of all the hard work and effort you are putting into your work. Well done and keep it up!
Willow	Inaaya	For an imaginative and well structured first draft of your adventure story. You used your limited time effectively to come up with some interesting adverbs and adjectives and added speech appropriately. Well done, Inaaya. I look forward to reading your final draft.
Oak	Grace	For always showing brilliant focus and effort in every lesson! Well done Grace
Juniper	Cassie	For persevering and working incredibly hard during all lessons this week.
Elm	Riyen	For perseverance and determination in his work, and for always being kind.
Beech	Yaseen	For his dedication for looking carefully and diligently at his writing, making small but impactful improvement.
Rowan	Milind	For being a hardworking and dedicated member of Rowan Class who shines in everything he does.
Poplar	David	For his excellent control and coordination in our volleyball lesson this week. Well done, David!