Stars of the week 19th January 2024

| Class | Nominee | Reason |
|---------|-----------|---|
| Holly | Emma | For your perseverance in Maths when working out fact families. You asked for help when needed and then persevered through the task till you finished. You should be really proud of yourself. Well done. |
| Willow | Zoraiz | For writing a well-thought-out prediction based on The Finger-Eater. He has used evidence from the text, interesting and engaging word vocabulary to capture the reader and presented it beautifully in his book. I was very impressed! |
| Oak | Laksh | For brilliant contributions in our science lesson on different types of teeth! |
| Juniper | Saathvik | For taking ownership of his learning and making sure he is ready to start each lesson promptly . |
| Elm | Elm class | For working extremely well with members of staff covering Elm class this week. Mrs Hedar is very proud of you! |
| Beech | Sophie | For being the example student for her classmates, setting the highest of standards and doing her best at all times. |
| Rowan | Ayooluwa | For demonstrating excellent use of BODMAS when solving problems in Maths this week. Well done! |
| Poplar | Harriet | For being a conscientious member of the class who always works to the best of her ability across the curriculum. This week, Harriet has written an excellent Tripadvisor review on the Warner Bros. Studio Tour: The Making of Harry Potter. Well done, Harriet! |
