Road safety

As you know, we have been liaising with Councillor Mark Watkin and the Watford Parking Lead Officer, Justin Bloomfield to look at both short-term and long-term solutions to our recent traffic incidents and parking issues.

Schools generate a high volume of traffic at drop-off and pick-up times, so it is important that we minimise the impact of this traffic for local residents and from a safety perspective.

For some time, we have been concerned about the congestion in Molteno Road, given the narrowness of the road and the number of small children who are walking to school. Mark Watkin has contacted Watford Parking and the Police in order to monitor this situation more closely.

Below are details of the monitoring that will be taking place after half term. If you use Molteno Road to park and/or drop off, please could you consider using another wider road to park.

Cllr Watkin,

Further to your email below, I have spoken with our enforcement contractor and confirmed that we will increase patrols daily to Nascot Junior School from Monday 26 February, when the new term resumes, and with a particular focus on Molteno Road. As agreed with the police, the patrolling officers will also carry and use the S59 notices and distribute to any vehicles/drivers seen to be present. The increased patrols will be maintained for a 2-week period and then reviewed.

I have also spoken with Andrew Sturgeon and it has been agreed that we will make arrangements for the general area to be visited and assessed to determine if there are any additional amendments that can be considered that may assist in strengthening the current restrictions. We will provide you with a further update once this has taken place.
