

UPDATE FOR PARENTS

Friday 11th
October 2024

- Thought for the week
- Gallery
- Stars of the week

Thought for the week...

In a world where you can be anything...

Gallery

Lavender

By Lilly, year 6 Poplar

Stars of the week Friday 11th October

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Tommy	For always working hard and trying his best in the classroom. Tommy consistently demonstrates a good attitude towards his learning and has an excellent work ethic - well done Tommy!
Willow	Conor	For the best week yet! Well done, Conor. Not only did you write a great poem in English and show your place value knowledge in our Maths this week, but you also contributed to singing assembly - I loved seeing you enjoy Mrs Agnew and the rest of the school using your suggestion.
Oak	Priyen	For his fantastic enthusiasm and confidence when performing his persuasive speech to the children in Year 3.
Juniper	Annabel	For writing an excellent compelling and persuasive speech for why children should not wear school uniform. Well done Annabel.
Elm	Arsila	For always focusing and trying her best, and her dedication to her spelling practice at home.
Beech	Anoushka	For consistently being the first person to follow any instruction given. Anoushka is a wonderful role model to her peers and a pleasure to teach.
Rowan	Eileen	For a beautifully written narrative based on the book 'Night of the Gargoyles'. You used dialogue effectively to convey character and included description to evoke a fearful mood and eerie atmosphere.
Poplar	Yaseen	For his narrative 'Night of the Gargoyles', which conveyed character, used dialogue to advance the action and created a sinister atmosphere. I really enjoyed reading it! Well done, Yaseen.