Stars of the week

Friday 9th January

Class	Nominee	Reason
3 Holly	Adam	For really thoughtful and considered ideas and incites during class discussions. Also, for being a fantastic referee during our handball tournament. You were firm, fair and committed.
3 Oak	Aliraza	For a great start back after the Christmas break. Well done, Aliraza. Your keenness to work and happy and friendly manner have meant for a successful week.
4 Juniper	Eva P	For working hard to develop her confidence in Maths and further her understanding of division.
4 Willow	Yash	For overcoming a difficult situation sensibly and maturely.
5 Beech	Jay	For his fantastic effort in all areas of school life. Jay always tries his best, never gives up and approaches all tasks with a positive attitude. His determination and hard work are wonderful to see. Keep it up, Jay!
5 Elm	Zoraiz	For demonstrating excellent grasp of a formal register when writing a letter in our new English topic, creating a great piece of work incorporating all he has learned so far. Well done.
6 Poplar	Hussain-Ali	For his enthusiasm and excellent learning behaviour throughout the Harry Potter studio tour. Hussain-Ali was a joy to be around and a fantastic role-model to his peers and members of the public. Well done!
6 Rowan	Ilya	For being a helpful, kind, and exceptionally well-behaved member of the group on our trip to the Harry Potter Studios. You shared fantastic knowledge with enthusiasm, remained fully engaged throughout, and looked out for other members of the group, making sure everyone stayed together. Well done!
