Thought for the week

Do not judge each day by the harvest
you reap, but by the seeds you plant.

Year 3 trip to the Chiltern Open Air Museum

The children in year 3 had a wonderful trip to the Chiltern Open Air Museum yesterday. The trip was specifically designed to support the Year 3 History curriculum, in which they are studying the Stone Age. Having the trip so early in the academic year has allowed the classes to benefit from the team building activities afforded by this experience. The Year 3 teaching team were very proud of the engagement of all the children. Congratulations on a very successful day, Year 3!

Stars of the week Friday 20th September

Class	Nominee	Reason
Holly	Vedanshi	For fantastic mathematics this week. Your use of flexible partitioning this week was amazing. You challenged yourself to find 12 different ways to make 528! Well done!
Willow	Codie	For showing great efficiency and accuracy in Maths. Your place value work in lesson showed a high level of understanding and application. Well done, Codie. Keep up the good work.
Oak	Mitchell	For a fantastic start to the year, you have shown a positive mindset, always giving everything a go to the best of your ability. Well done!
Juniper	Aliana	For being a kind and helpful member of Juniper class who always looks out for her classmates.
Elm	Freddie	For being such a helpful member of Maple club this week.
	Dhyan	For really striving in maths and focusing well in lessons.
Beech	Maya	Maya has been such hard-working star this week! She is also consistently so positive and cheery, making her a delight to have in Beech. Well done!
Rowan	James	For taking an active part in lessons and demonstrating a fantastic commitment to learning in both whole class and independent work.
Poplar	Khushi	For her constant hard work and perseverance in all areas of the curriculum, especially in English. Khushi always listens to marking and feedback, and adjusts her work accordingly. I also particularly enjoyed reading her 'Year 6 Investigates' task this week, which outlined superstitions surrounding Friday 13th. Well done, Khushi!
