Stars of the week

Friday 20th March

Class	Nominee	Reason
3 Holly	Shahana	For excellent subtracting using money. Your work was methodical and accurate. Well done.
3 Oak	Sophia	For a focused and energetic performance at the netball event on Tuesday. Well done, Sophia. Your determination and resilience shone through.
4 Willow	James	For being a fantastic team player in the Year 4 football tournament. You saved and scored so many goals, whilst encouraging and supporting your team mates. You also dealt very bravely with your injury.
4 Juniper	Harris	For demonstrating excellent sportsmanship during our Year 4 football competition.
5 Elm	Aardarsh	For trying hard to focus and challenge himself in lessons, and for consistently producing great quality work. He is showing his maturity and developing his work ethic.
5 Beech	Himansh	For always being so polite and respectful. Every morning, Himansh greets me with a cheerful "Good morning," and a big smile, and at the end of each day, he kindly wishes me a nice evening. These thoughtful manners really stand out. Thank you and well done!
6 Rowan	Aizah	For excellent focus, determination and perseverance in maths when completing Primary Maths Challenges and for consistently achieving the targets set for herself.
6 Poplar	Harrison Humble and James McKinnon	For their excellent skill and sportsmanship demonstrated during their weekly tennis lessons, as well as during last week's year 6 hockey finals. Well done boys. You are a wonder to watch!
