Thought for the week...

National Thank a Teacher day was on the 17th June.

I'd like to thank all our wonderful Teachers and Teaching Assistants for all they do to support and guide the children.

A teacher shapes the future by lighting a fire of curiosity, unlocking potential, and gently guiding students toward self-discovery.

Year 6 boys and girls cricket competition

Many congratulations to the Year 6 boys and girls cricket teams for playing so well in their cricket tournament. Both teams came second.

What we are most proud of is their sportsmanship and the way that they conducted themselves with the teams from local schools.

Focus on Attendance

Stars of the week

Friday 19 June

Class	Nominee	Reason
3 Holly	Skye	For enthusiasm and positivity during choir practise. Thank you for always turning up on time, putting 100% effort into learning words and singing with passion.
3 Oak	Oluwatomi	For a positive approach to swimming lessons in and out of the water. Well done, Oluwatomi. Your resilience when learning difficult strokes in the pool and your efficiency in getting ready motivates others to make the most out of their time at the pool.
4 Willow	Stephen	For making a fantastic start in Willow Class. You are already making friends and your listening skills are excellent. We are so glad you have joined our school.
4 Juniper	Pilgrim	For having an excellent start to swimming lessons. You have demonstrated great positivity and determination in your lessons.
5 Elm	Sarah	For showing fantastic independence in your fractions work, tackling challenges with confidence and determination. Well done, Sarah!
5 Beech	Kiyaan	Kiyaan has shown fantastic perseverance this week. Although he has been suffering with sore eyes due to allergies, he has not let it affect his learning and has continued to work hard without complaint. Well done!
6 Rowan	Boys' and Girls' Cricket teams	For representing the school so brilliantly in the Watford and Hertsmere Schools Mixed Cricket Tournament. You played cohesively as a team and demonstrated outstanding skill, good humour, and excellent sportsmanship throughout the competition. Well done on being such fantastic ambassadors for the school!
6 Poplar	Boys' and Girls' Cricket teams	For representing the school so brilliantly in the Watford and Hertsmere Schools Mixed Cricket Tournament. You played cohesively as a team and demonstrated outstanding skill, good humour, and excellent sportsmanship throughout the competition. Well done on being such fantastic ambassadors for the school!
